Dear Parents,

We are very fortunate to have the company ‘Solomons Theatre’ coming into school on Tuesday 10th November for all Year 9 students as part of their Education for Life curriculum.

During this day, all students will watch the play ‘Last Orders’ which is an educational show that explores the serious issues of underage binge drinking, sexual health, consent and the laws that surround young people in society today.

After watching the play, students will then take part in an interactive workshop that will provide them with more detailed information about the key themes that occur within the play itself, as well as developing the skills to avoid pressure to drink alcohol and act irresponsibly.

The play compliments the statutory RSHE guidance and gives students the opportunity to learn more about issues surrounding the law on alcohol and consent. Solomons Theatre have worked with Wildern for many years and the feedback we have received has always been positive from both the students themselves and the theatre company.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me before the day.
