Dear Parent/Guardian

I am writing to invite your son/daughter to the after-school programme of Literature study sessions offered by the English Department to support your son/daughter through their GCSE examinations.

These study sessions run on a Wednesday from 3.00pm – 4.00pm with Mrs Poynter, the Core Progress Assistant for the English Department. This term, Mrs Poynter will be offering study sessions recapping the Power and Conflict anthology poems that your son/daughter will have studied as part of their home learning during the lockdown period.

Students must sign up in advance, outside room 913, where they will also be able to see what is being covered on a weekly basis. It is vitally important that your son/daughter ensures they do this so that we can implement our health and safety procedures if necessary.

I have attached the session timetable for the next half term below for your reference, and so that you can discuss with your son/daughter which sessions will be most beneficial for them to attend, based on their personal reflections on the gaps in their knowledge. Please do contact your son/daughter's English teacher if you would like further guidance on which sessions would be most appropriate.

If you would like any further information on the support offered by the English department, please do not hesitate to contact me at the school.

Yours faithfully

Mrs B Rooney
Director of Learning for English
