I2I TEACHING PARTNERSHIP TERM UPDATE

Many school parents are attracted to a teaching career and so our bi-termly newsletter gives you an overview of what it is like to be a teacher trainee and some helpful information about this highly rewarding career.

This edition includes:

- Trainees' perspectives of the i2i programme
- Information on Bursaries & Scholarships
- Our upcoming events

"Trainees are now leaders in their classrooms"

Liz Wylie, SCITT Director

As a teacher training provider, we have had a fantastic first term with our new cohort, with training 1 day per week in their Centre, and then 4 days in the classroom with their school colleagues. Trainees are now "leaders" in their classrooms, taking full lessons, with well planned and sequenced learning. It has been an immense pleasure to be part of the link tutor team visiting schools and being with them in their lessons. It is clear to see how they are embedding the i2i Curriculum successfully, which has allowed them to create excellent learning environments for their students. Trainees are now developing how to use questioning skillfully, modelling and using explanations, a range of scaffolding strategies, as well as developing their assessment for learning experiences. It is a joy to see how everyone is developing as teachers.

Trainee Perspectives

Miles (Maths Trainee at Brookfield School)

"This Autumn term has been both challenging and fulfilling. I've had the chance to develop my teaching skills, build meaningful connections with students, and grow more confident in managing the classroom environment. I am now looking forward to the Christmas break and my second placement in the new year!"

“

I started my SCITT training back in September with i2i Teaching Partnership SCITT. The training has been excellent, and I am now enjoying teaching complete lessons. Making and crafting is my happy place, and DT is the perfect subject for sharing my passion. I've been teaching Textiles, Design, and food and cannot wait to share my photography skills.

Thinking of Training To Teach?

Did you know there are bursaries and scholarships available to help finance your teacher training?

You could receive up to £29,000 tax-free while you train in the form of a government teacher training bursary. Bursaries are tax-free payments you receive if you are training to teach in certain subjects.

Alternatively If you are a gifted physicist, mathematician, chemist, linguist or computer scientist, you could be awarded a scholarship to support your training. To find out more about eligibility for bursaries and scholarships, visit this link.

Our next in person train to teach information event takes place on 8 Feb at Wildern school. To register for this or one of our virtual events please visit here.
